1 Games for Disabled Youth Brno 2010

1.1 Project Description

The Games for Disabled Youth is an international sporting and social encounter of young people with physical handicaps, a unique event in the European context as for the number of participants (over 530 persons), internationality (10 countries of Europe), scope of the sporting part (8 sports grounds) and the associated and cultural programme (a charitable concert, a big photographic competition, an art workshop etc.).

The event was held with the assistance of the European Paralympic Committee and this year was a "test competition". In the words of John Petersson, President of EPC, the next year has a big chance to become the historically first European paralympic games of the youth.

The mission of the project is integration of children and youth with physical handicaps to the society through sporting activities. Sports help disabled children to overcome their handicap.

2 Sports Categories and Sports

The games were divided into three categories

- “Masters“ high-performance athletes with health classification
- “Open“ athletes without health classification
- “Mixed“ programme for mixed teams of handicapped and non-handicapped athletes

“Masters“ category was reserved for athletes with the so called health classification, i.e. for active athletes with a physical handicap. This category showed the highest international participation

“Open“ category was reserved for athletes without the so called health classification. The competitions were held in compliance with the relevant international rules, which, however, were applied less strictly. This category gives a chance to handicapped children who have only begun with a sport or only practising recreational sports to meet in a “big competition” with their athletic models.

“Mixed“ category included a special programme of joint activities of persons with a physical handicap and “healthy” athletes. This category is one of the parts of the “integration” mission of the games.

The participants competed in the following sport disciplines:

“Masters“ category

- Swimming
- Athletics
- Boccia – a sport for persons with reduced mobility of the extremities and with a handicap binding them to a wheelchair. The game is a modification of games like Pétanque and has been a paralympic sport since 1984.
- Wheelchair tennis

“Open“ category

- Swimming
- Athletics
- Boccia
- Table tennis

“Mixed“ category

- Chess
- Wheelchair slalom
- Handbike simulator riding – handbike is a bike propelled by hands only
- Integrated boccia
- Streetball – wheelchair basketball
- Football tournament
- Skittles
- Pétanque

3 Ceremonial Opening

Thursday 24 June 2010, 7 pm

Knights' Hall of New Town Hall in Brno

The Games were ceremonially opened on Thursday 24 June 2010 in the Knights' Hall of the New Town Hall in Brno at 7 pm at the presence of Deputy Mayor Oliver Pospíšil, members of the Brno City Council, President of the European Paralympic Committee John Petersson, multiple paralympic champion and world champion in cycling Jiří Ježek and world champion Šárka Kašpárková, representatives of partners and sponsors of the Games.

The ceremonial parade featured representatives of the participating countries with their country flags. The whole evening was managed by the speaker Michael Svoboda. The cultural programme of the ceremonial opening of the Games was provided by the children's chorus Holzováček, who performed three chorus pieces in the course of the evening.

The ceremonial vow was taken by Kateřina Svobodová as representative of the referees and Lubomír Skopalík, a boccia player, as representative of athletes, in front of all attendees.

Referees' vow:

"I swear in the name of the referees that all referees will undertake their referee roles and do the job in the course of the races and games honestly, fairly and responsibly. They will not abuse their powers in favour or to the detriment of anybody and will assure that the progress of the races and games will comply with the rules of fair-play."

Athletes' vow:

"I swear in the name of all athletes taking part in the Games that we will respect and observe the rules related to the individual competitions, perform honestly, without use of drugs or doping, with the true sporting spirit and for the glory of the sport and the honour of the sportsmen."

4 Náměstí Svobody Square

Friday 25 June 2010, 10 am – 3 pm

On Friday 25 June an associated programme of the Games for Disabled Youth was held in náměstí Svobody square in Brno.

The visitors could take part in a wheelchair slalom to try how the wheelchair users move every day and how difficult the wheelchair control is. The organizers prepared a slalom route and a skills ride for that purpose. The winners of the individual groups received medals with graphics by the artist Rostislav Pospíšil. Most medals were granted by the paralympic champion in athletics from Barcelona in 1992 Vojtěch Vašíček.

The visitors also had a chance to try a handbike, i.e. a bike powered by hands only.

The programme was also enriched with two performances of the Brno majorettes LASSIES currently celebrating five years of their existence.

Children could enjoy an entertainment programme in náměstí Svobody square, including a big jumping castle or refreshments offered at the stand of the Albert Foundation.

The programme also had its speakers, Jaroslav Kára and kisspatrols of Kiss Hády radio station.

5 Vaňkovka Shopping Gallery and Wannieck Art Gallery

Saturday 26 June 2010

Vaňkovka Shopping Gallery, 9 am – 4 pm

Wannieck Art Gallery, 9 am – 6 pm

On Saturday 26 June another associated programme of the Games for Disabled Youth was held between the Vaňkovka Shopping Gallery and the Wannieck Art Gallery. The programme included a streetball game and the finals of the chess tournament of the previous days.

In the course of the day a competition in ball throwing to the basket was held for the competitors to find out how difficult it is to hit the basket without the help of legs. The event was attended by several basketball players of the SK Hobit sports club of Brno, including the injured motorcycle racer Lukáš Šembera, currently active in the club. The visitors could also get acquainted with the sport and obtain information about training options in Brno.

The Wannieck Art Gallery itself was the venue of the final round of the chess tournament, already starting on Thursday at 6 pm and continuing on Friday since 9 am in the Social Care Institute in Kociánka.

On Saturday the Brno majorettes LASSIES gave another performance in the context of the Games.

The programme again features the speakers Jaroslav Kára and kisspatrols of Kiss Hády radio station.

6 Art Workshops

Saturday 26 June 2010, 10 am – 3 pm

Wannieck Art Gallery

Another associated programme held on Saturday 26 June was represented by the art workshop organised between the Vaňkovka Shopping Gallery and the Wannieck Art Gallery. There the young handicapped athletes could express themselves through art. There was also space for other participants who were interested in jointing the handicapped athletes.

The project was conceived as an educational art workshop. The joint task of all participants was to create a “new square”. The attendees were inspired by náměstí Svobody square, its appearance, buildings and overall architectural language. Through various tasks explained to them by Petra Janáčková, specialist in special pedagogy and art mediation of Masaryk University, the young handicapped artists built or painted houses and created new pavement.

8 Final Ceremony and Charitable Concert

Saturday 26 June 2010, 8 pm

Špilberk Castle yard

The ceremonial closing of the Games for Disabled Youth started at Špilberk Castle at 8 pm. The participants and the young athletes could enjoy an ice cream party with the speaker Michael Svoboda.

The ceremonial closing was connected with a grand charitable concert featuring Czech musical stars. The concert was broadcast by the Czech Television on Tuesday 6 July 2010 at 7 pm on ČT 2 channel.

The last medals to swimmers, athletes and boccia players were granted in the context of the ceremonial closing by Chief Executive Officer of Brno Heat Plants Alexej Nováček together with President of the European Paralympic Committee John Petersson.

The swimmers received two sets of medals in the Masters category (50 metres free style – males and females).

Athletic medals were also granted on Friday at the athletic stadium of the Brno University of Technology and on the occasion of the closing ceremony too. The awarded athletes decorated at the Špilberk Castle included javelin throwers and runners (60m). Further medals were granted in the course of the final evening to boccia players in Masters BC 3 category. All medallists winning in the BC 3 category represented the Czech Republic.

A prize was also awarded to the most likeable athlete and to two youngest sportsmen of the Games.

After the prize-giving ceremony the charitable concert featured other outstanding personalities – guests and organizers of the Games for Disabled Youth Brno 2010. The whole event was ceremonially closed by Mayor of the Statutory City of Brno Roman Onderka.

The concert programme included songs performed by Roman Vojtek, Sabina Laurinová, Šárka Marková, Viki Matušovová, Jan Urban, Hynek Svrček, Kateřina Nováková, Jana Koutová.

In addition to the medals 1700 cones of ice cream were handed out to children in the course of the ice cream party at Špilberk.

9 Graphics

Graphic design of the Games for Disabled Youth was created by artist Rostislav Pospíšil living and working in Brno. Rostislav Pospíšil is also connected with the design of Bird Emil, the mascot of the Emil Foundation, organizer of the Games for Disabled Youth. And it was also great motivation for my studies... I can see now that those people who told me that English and special pedagogy was a bad combination were not right.”*

I think that my Irish group and me understood each other excellently... We agreed that we would like to see each other again (Laurence even told me he wanted to come back to learn Czech...), and so if you manage to organize another Games (I keep my fingers crossed for you!!!), I will certainly be happy to join and help with anything, especially as concerns my Irish friends.”
